

Provisional Programme

Britain-Belize Association (UKBA)

18th Annual Meeting

Recent Research on Belize: Plants, Pots and Slaves

Saturday 3rd October, 2015

10:30 – 16:30 hrs

At

Institute of the Americas
University College London
51 Gordon Square
London WC1 OPN

10:30 Registration and coffee

11:00 Welcome –Barbara Bulmer-Thomas, Botanist,
Meeting co-ordinator.

11:05 – 13:00

Rafael Manzanero, Executive Director, Friends for
Conservation and Development: (Title to be announced)

Chris Minty, Friends for Conservation and Development:
(Title to be announced)

Neil Stewart, Dept. of Geography, Edinburgh University:
Developing community fire management in the Southern pine woodlands of Belize.

Sarah Donahue, Edinburgh University: (Title to be Announced)

13:00 - 14:00 Buffet Lunch

14:00 – 16:00

Gail Stott, University of Oxford, Accelerating the discovery of high conservation value areas: A bioquality hotspot map for the Maya Golden Landscape.

Lindsay Duncan, Institute of Archaeology, University College, London: Ancient material contribution to fertile Soil formation: A summary of research at Marco Gonzalez, Ambergris Caye, Belize

Stuart Ottley, Caracol, Youth Community Development, Caracol on the cusp.

Barbara Bulmer-Thomas, Independent researcher, Belize Slave owners and the University College Slavery Database.

16:00 – 16:30

Neil Stewart, President of the Britain-Belize Association: Last Words and UKBA business. Close of meeting.

All Welcome but please let me know at bbulmerthomas@gmail.com for catering purposes.